

Gloria Marie Halle

November 17, 1931 - February 9, 2020

Gloria Halle passed away on Sunday, February 9, 2020 surrounded by her loved ones. She grew up in Freehold, New Jersey and was one of the youngest of her 13 siblings. Gloria aka Nana was feisty, sassy, spunky, and told you like it was and didn't care what you thought about it. She did things her way and only her way. As grandpa said, she was the boss. Everyone knew not to mess with her as she didn't take anything from anybody. Nana loved to go to church and keep things organized. Anyone who knew her knew she kept a clean, dust free house and made the best potato salad. If she saw something didn't have a place in the house, trust me, she would find one for it. Nana was married to grandpa for 57 years and had 1 son with him, Michael. She has 2 other sons from a previous marriage, Roger and Paul. Nana is preceded in death by her parents Earl and Florence Marriner, her sons Roger and Paul, and her 12 siblings. She is survived by her loving husband Arthur, her son Michael (Lisa), granddaughter Emily (William), and sister Joyce. Nana was one of a kind. She will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her but we know she will be our guardian angel. Nana, we love you and will love you til our last days. Rest In Peace and tell Paul we say hi! Her celebration of life will be held on Friday, February 14, 2020 at 1 pm at Nativity Lutheran Church in St. Anthony. A visitation will be held 1 hour prior. In lieu of flowers, please donate to the Alzheimer's Association or any charity you feel passionate about.

“ Nana, not a day goes by that I don't think you. I think of your sassy attitude and how you told people like it was. I think back about all the card games and school we would play. How you waived at the mannequin on our South Dakota trip, and grandpa and I just laughed. I listen to Conway Twitty's Hello Darlin' and think of you. I remember listening to the tapes in the car on our road trips mixed in with a little of Loretta for grandpa. I found some voicemails on my phone of you and it is nice to hear your voice again. I always hear you in the back of mind telling me to "shut up" or "you little brat", all in a loving way (sometimes ;)) I have a bird feeder in my yard that is just for you. Birds are finally coming by and eating from it. Every time I see a cardinal I think of you. How that must you stopping by to check up on us. I truly believe you were with my on my Birthday. Will got a New Jersey quarter as change from the Gas Station, I take that as a sign from you that you were there. I tell Will every time it storms, it is the angels bowling. I remember you telling me that as a kid, I never forgot that. Your necklace is on me everyday. I think I have only missed a day where I didn't wear it. Let me tell you, I don't know how you took it off. It's a little hard to get on sometimes, the clip on the back is small! Nana, I miss you and love you. We only part to meet again! Save a seat for me up there by you, hopefully it will be a while but I know you keep it warm for me. ❤️

“Gloria across the street” that is her name to me. Clearly, I grew up in the house across the street from Art and Gloria. She was a fierce, strong, and powerful woman! I think she might be the first adult I ever heard say a swear word. And I love her for it! She watched our house and the comings and goings everyday. I found out in recent years that she even knew that I threw parties when my parents were out of town, and she and Art just made sure no one drove anywhere, or got out of hand. Gloria was a force to be recond with. And like my mom said, heaven will never be the same now that she is there. Her obit is the best obit I have ever read. True, honest, and real. Just like Gloia was. I think of her often, and will now speak to her through prayer even more often. I will also never forget Peewee, what an adorable little dog with perfect little pink toe nails. I'll be thinking about you and your family through this loss. Thank you for sharing Gloria with the rest of us! We are all a bit tougher because of her, and we wont take shit from anyone, just like she taught us.

“ Emily, as soon as I saw the picture with your Grandma and Peewee, I thought you and that doggie in your white and pick baby stroller going for a walk up the street with both of your grandparents! I can't imagine the world without Gloria wise-cracking and smart mouthing us all with her laughter and love. No one ever like Gloria! Heaven will never be the same. Her love of family, friends, neighbors, birds, dogs, angels and orchids was contagious. Art, you are a saint to have loved and been loved by the wackiest woman God ever created, God, be with all of you in her wonderful memories. Art and Gloria, I love you both to the moon and back! ~Diane

“ I had the pleasure of bringing communion to Gloria every week. We had wonderful visits and I always left with a smile on my face. She will always be a very special woman to me. God bless you Gloria, you will be missed by many.
