Tribute Wall

“Gordy and I were translators in Korea. We both were trained at the Army Language School and served North of Seoul. We had opportunities to work with displaced children and do other nice for local citizenry.

“I met Gordy in 1964 when I started with Equifax. We were part of a group that had very serious sports discussions and Gordy was always on top of the details! Great times!

My sincere condolences to you, Vera, and your family. God Bless you all!
