“ My first real job as a high school student was at Fedor's market. As a worker and a younger person, you would naturally be intimidated and wary of a "boss". I remember trying to figure out which of the two brothers was more strict and serious, and which was easier to get along with. The longer I worked for them and the more they accepted me, I learned that they were both great businessmen and a whole lot of fun.

I thought that I would only work there one school year since I wanted the summer off, but they called me the next fall as school was starting and asked if I would like to come back. Of course I did and worked for them off and on for quite a few years. I ended up enjoying working and doing other non work related activities with the "bosses". The fellow workers, customers, and friends at Fedor's Market made up a close, interesting and, entertaining community.

Gordy had such a great disposition, usually joking and had so many goofy sayings that being next to him at the cutting board was many times more like entertainment than work.

I could not have dreamed that day that I applied for the job that the "Boss" could end up being such a lifetime friend and someone to look up to.

“ We moved to Mounds View in 1968. We soon met our neighbors, Gordie and Nancy. We couldn't have asked for better neighbors. Gordie was always there to help if anything needed fixing. Many fond memories: camping and fishing at pebble Lake, playing penny poker, bowling, all the parties, many many more! RIP Gordie

“ I could write a book of memories about Gordie. I grew up next door to him and bought the house from my parents. 50 plus years living next door to this great person it is very difficult share best stories. Perhaps best is how much he loved my dogs. Got a rescue lab jump that fence every time he saw Gordie. So I put up a 6 foot fence and added short gate he could open to toss a ball and treat my dogs with old fashioned wieners from his store. Then I would sit and listen to the stories of me running across the yard in a diaper and how my sister got her foot caught in my brothers bike spokes. Most of a I just miss being on that property and having such a great neighbor. Rest in peace my friend.
