“ Uncle Gordy brought buoyancy wherever he went. We will miss that in the days ahead. Here is a photo from a family picnic in 1983 or so held in honor of a visit from Grandma Justus’ cousin Hildur from Sweden. It reminds me of how precious family was to Gordy. Love and blessings to Nancy, Jill, Jenna, Mac and all of the family from your NY cousin and her family.

“ I have lots of memories of Gordy; Gordy was the father of my best childhood friend. I spent a lot of time at the Justus house, and Gordy was like a second dad. I remember whenever Mac and I wanted to do something, Gordy always had work for us to do first. I remember hauling wood, stacking it in the basement, yard cleanup, or any other odd job that needed to be done. Ever since I was a teenager, the Justus family and the Shurson family would go up north, to begin with Superior Shores and then for years and years Grandview Lodge to celebrate Memorial Day. The friendship camaraderie laughter was something I look forward to every year. Sitting around the campfire singing “Artillery Man - Artillery Man here’s my heart and here’s my hand, do you really really think I should have another drink” all led by Gordy. Gordy will be missed. Goodbye Gordy Rest in Peace.
