“ Grace was not my mother-in-law as I am just her daughter-in-law Linda's sister, but although not a relative, I always considered her a true family member to me. We shared many Henning/Schultz family Christamases over these many years at Linda & Bruce's house and many a Thanksgiving at the cabin my husband and I used to own on Sturgeon Lake. She was always such a loving presence and so very interesting and engaging. She loved flowers (and especialy Gerber Daisies) and I liked to give her, my mother, and my Aunt Jean each a small floral table centerpiece at Thanksgiving to take home with them. (Hers also included a birthday card as it always fell near or on Thanksgiving Day. We also always sang Happy Birthday to her, so Thanksgiving has always been a birthday event for the Schultz/Henning family.) She was always so delighted and thankful about these small gestures of friendship and love for whom I considered to be such an amazing woman. I will remember her with great fondness, and will also never forget what a great friend she was to both my Mom and Dad as well. Rest in peace, dear Grace. Salvation is truly yours.

“ I remember how much my mother-in-law Grace enjoyed talking about her trip to Alaska many years ago and seeing all the wildlife, glaciers and incredibly beautiful mountains and tundra. It was the trip of a lifetime for her. She brought back many little gifts for everyone, including a carved wooden black bear still in one piece after many years of handling by little hands. She was very thoughtful and kind to me at all times and helped me out immensely by sharing time-tested recipes with me when I was young and didn't have many dishes in my cooking repertoire. I still use many of her dessert recipes, written in her handwriting and with lots of helpful hints. Rhubarb Dream Dessert, Applesauce Raisin Cake, Date-filled cookies and a strawberry dish that has been used so much the name of the confection is rubbed off the card. She had a long and fruitful life and was loved by many, including me. From her very grateful daughter-in-law. Linda Henning .
