

Grace Manick

January 26, 2010

Manick, Grace 'Jane' age 87, long time resident of Edina. Preceded in death by parents, Louise and Fred Duemke; three brothers, Ray, Walt, and Doug; and nephew, Roger Duemke. Survived by husband of almost 60 years, Dr. Kenneth; daughters, Gig (Woody) Ginkel, Sherri Manick; grandchildren, Jennifer (Mark) Stevens, Brian (Erica) Ginkel; great-grandchildren, Jonah and Olivia Stevens; sister-in-law, Mary Lemieux and family; niece, Nancy Peterson and family; cousin, Lavonne Nygren and son, Doug Nygren and family; nephew, Roger Duemke's family; other family and friends. During her youth in Hopkins, Jane was Miss Hopkins/Hopkins Raspberry Festival Queen and a Miss Aquatennial candidate. She attended the Minneapolis Institute of Art School after high school and then designed after ski wear for the Snow Fun Shop at Dayton's. Jane was a talented and well-known artist of oil, acrylic, and water color. She painted twice weekly with friends until as recently as this past October. Jane loved baking treats daily and sharing them with family and friends. She was a kind, dear person who loved her family and friends more than anything. We will miss her beautiful smile. Funeral service Thursday, January 28th, 1:30 PM at Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel, West 50th Street and Vernon Avenue at Highway 100. Visitation one hour prior to service. Private interment Groveland Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorials preferred to donor's choice. Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996

Tribute Wall

KO

“ *I did not know Grace but I have loved her miniature paintings. They are so lovely and seem to represent her very well.
Her paintings will always be with us.
Kay O'Connor*

Kay O'Connor - September 15, 2022 at 01:43 PM