

Gregory Alan Bradford

March 15, 1954 - March 14, 2020

Bradford, Gregory A.

(Greg)

Age 65, of Minnetonka, passed away unexpectedly on March 14, at home.

Greg's family cared for him deeply, and he will be terribly missed.

Greg was born March 15, 1954, in Lansing, MN, to Dorothy and Ralph Bradford.

He graduated from Austin HS in 1972, then attended The University of MN.

He started a long, successful career in the Twin Cities, in Computer Technology.

Greg was known for his great sense of humor, and he truly enjoyed spending time with his family, friends and dogs, Lexy and Molly.

He loved vacationing on Lake Superior with family, campfires, boating, and cruising on his motorcycle.

He is survived by wife Pam; Son, Justin, Brother Gary (Linda), Sister Barb (Dwight), several nieces, nephews, in-laws, other relatives and lifelong friends.

Funeral Service Thursday, March 19, 11:00 AM at St. Hubert Catholic Church, 8201 Main Street, in Chanhassen, with visitation 1-hour prior. Private Internment.

“ *Your mom and dad and all your family were such a gift to the Lansing community. A wonderful family. Your family was such a help in our time of distress and need when my mother, Bertha Bonnes, passed away. I wish there was more we could do for you now. God Bless all of your family. RIP Gregg. You will be missed.
