“ Sharon, Matt and Lindsey, I just heard about Greg tonight and I am so sorry for your loss. The last time I saw him we were sitting side by side at the Stillwater Medical clinic waiting to have some blood drawn. In a short span of time he shared, with pride, news of Matt and his experiences as a pilot, and of Lindsey and her nursing career. He was thinking forward, and filled me in on future plans with you, Sharon. I'm sure no words are comforting at this time, but please know that even though I haven't been around much it was so sad to hear this news. But, for me, it was important to pass along memories that were consistent from the first time I met you guys in 1998. Greg will be missed for sure, but also fondly remembered for his smile, laugh and love of his family. Best of luck as you travel this difficult journey

“ So sorry to hear about Greg's passing. I'm a classmate...since kindergarten, and I remember him being very sweet, which shines through in the adult picture as well. Prayers for comfort for his family being sent from the Pacific Northwest.

“ Greg and I started in the Disability Management Services Department at Andersen about the same time. We joked often about being the "newbies" in a sea of very long term Andersen employees! Our careers had followed similar paths, and we often talked about acquaintances we had in the workers' compensation field. Our paths crossed often at Andersen, and I appreciated all of Greg's knowledge and expertise. He was wonderful to work with, and given we were about the same age, we spoke often of the similarities between his family and mine, with both of us having a boy and girl in their 20's finishing college and starting their life long careers. Greg was so very proud of his children and all of their very impressive accomplishments!! I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers during this very difficult time.

*My sincere sympathies to all of you,

“ I am so sorry Sharon, and family. We have had you in our thoughts and prayers. This is such a terrible thing. I wish there was something I could do. I'm so sorry! I feel so helpless. If I could do anything to relieve your pain and sorrow, I would sacrifice myself for you.
