PS

You only had to meet Greg once to feel like you had a friend for life❤️ Our times together were spent at the ball field watching his son, Noah and our grandson, Avery, play the game they loved. We will always remember his kindness and fun-loving personality, whether it was helping with a pancake breakfast for the team in Detroit Lakes or giving boat rides to those that just loved being at the lake. He was there when the boys traveled to Rochester, cheering on the team, lending a helping hand at the BBQ or Just congratulating us with a big high-five when Avery hit his first home run! He was the guy that was always there to share your joy, while at the same time sharing his joy with you. Our hearts are heavy thinking of his children & other family members, and we will always cherish our loving memories of him❤️

I am writing this with tears rolling down my cheeks. What a beautiful tribute to an incredible man. I could feel the love for Greg literally thru the screen and his love for the family and his fellow officers. I pray that God would give you peace and put a smile in your heart with many cherished memories. We are sorry for your loss.
