“ Another housemate made this comment with tears. "Who will be waking me up for work in the morning? Can you please buy me a clock with alarm?" Greg found it as a duty, out of love and care to wake his housemate up every morning for work. He will indeed be missed.

“ I am thinking of Greg's family today as I write this memory regarding times with Greg. Please know Greg will be remembered by his house mates, staff and friends for as long as we live. Greg is not a guy easily forgotten; he made his mark on our hearts!

“ Greg loved riding around the lakes. I have many memories of taking the guys on a Sunday for a ride around the lakes; Greg liked to be active; during the time he had a neck brace on he couldn't ride his bike or bowl, so rides around the lake meant a lot to him. Greg loved to win when he played any game. He had a great smile and chuckle when he won at a game of checkers or uno. I remember a trip to an apple farm with Greg and his housemates, we took a ride on four by four to a different part of the orchard. Greg and his housemates had chili, bought apples and laughed together. It was a great time together. We will miss Greg's energy and enthusiasm for life and his cheerful greeting when- ever you came to his home.

“ Jeremy and I will never forget the amazing, fun, loving man I call uncle Greg! I am so tankful for all the walks and bike rides we have had over the past few years! I don't know what I'm going to do Monday and Thursday nights anymore but I will be remembering all the laughs we shared! Rest easy my friend, I love you and I will miss you so very much! Fly high with your mom and dad!!

“ During the long days of 2020 Greg gifted many necklaces as a creative response to the pandemic. They are a cherished reminder to me of his life and giving heart. ”
