“ The loss of a loved one is always a difficult time. I would like to give my condolences to the family. May memories of him always live in your hearts. While our loved ones 'sleep' in death, find comfort in the words of Revelation chapter twenty-one verse four where it says: "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." This promise is concerning future conditions on the earth since heaven does not experience such things as death or pain. God's original purpose for mankind was to live in a Paradise on earth forever. "He has not changed" according to Malachi chapter three verse six. Remember these comforting words as you await the resurrection of your beloved, Gregory.

“ Greg was a wonderful person and I was so saddened to hear about his passing. We were friends at Blaine Senior High and spent a lot of time together in class and outside of class. Greg was always a chatterbox! I admired the close relationship he had with his grandfather and all the things he did with him. After moving away from MN, I hadn't taken the time to reconnect with him. I am certain his presence will be missed by many.

*Warmly,

“ Greg had a contagious smile, I had the pleasure of taking care of him for the past several months and he will truly be missed, he had a mischievous side you could tell, but he loved to be where the people were, he did not want to miss any of the action. He loved to watch the "I love Lucy show" , we will all miss his thumbs up daily. Bless you Greg you will truly be missed at our house.
