“ Greg will be truly missed, I find comfort in the knowledge that the grand architect of the universe has a new disciple beside him, uniquely qualified to advise him to help us all. We were all fortunate to be able to share friendship with such a great and good man. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Greg was a dear friend who will be missed. He loved the concrete industry and devoted his life to it. He made an impact on all who knew him. He loved the water. I still remember his boat trip down the Mississippi to the Gulf where he wintered on his boat. We had many great times at Sandy Beach Resort on Gull Lake. He loved his family and was always quick to help a friend. I will miss him very much.
