

Gregory Russell

January 17, 2003

Russell Gregory Scott Russell, age 47, of Plymouth and Lincoln, MN died in his Plymouth home January 14, 2003. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Carl & Elma Russell and Theodore & Alma Ringdahl. Greg will be deeply missed by his sons, Brian, 19 and Kevin, 16, and their mother, Joan Russell, Eden Prairie; parents, James & Dorothy Russell, Alexandria; brother, Glenn (Linda) Russell, Mountain View, AR; sister, Gloria Russell, Hugo, MN; brother, Gary (Sherry) Russell, Bemidji, MN; nephews, Currey (Conny) Russell, Ryan (Gwen) Mulholland, Jesse and Dylan Russell; nieces, Amy Russell, Marlo (Erin) Hurley, Odessa (Matt) Beeker, Leah Russell; many grand nieces and nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins. Greg grew up in Alexandria, was baptized at First Baptist Church, earned the Order of the Arrow in the Boys Scouts and graduated from Jefferson High School. Greg was hired as a purchasing agent and design engineer for Stearns Mfg. upon graduation from SCSU. Greg moved on to the S.M. Osgood Company, working for six years as a sales rep. In 1990 Greg established his own business, Progressive Sales. Greg authored the authoritative manual for marine retailers and other successful "how to" books, but preferred to pander in poetry and short fiction. His words have appeared in dozens of magazines in the United States and Europe. He was a Mensa member and national speaker. Greg loved spending time with his sons and friends, fishing, hunting, camping, golfing, music, muscle cars, gourmet cooking and "getaways" at his cabin on Fishtrap Lake. Memorial service Sat. 2:00 PM, with visitation one hour before at the

Washburn-McReavy Eden Prairie Chapel, 7625 Mitchell Rd. (one block N. of Hwy. 5). In lieu of flowers, memorials are preferred to the D.N.R., the Animal Humane Society, or American Heart Assoc. Washburn-McReavy Eden Prairie Chapel 952-975-0400
