I will always remember Gus Sr. as a Very Good Man.. He was Always Nice to me, and we had some good talks.. In his later years he was Always glad to see you when ever you came over, happy and smiling. A lot of the right things to say.. I will miss that about him. I admired him as he helped out his family when they needed it most... First his Brother John before he passed, and then his Sister Mabel before she passed, and then his Brother Johns Wife, Phyllis, before she passed.. And then, for some time at home, before she passed, his Wife, Mary Ann.. What a Strong in Heart Man he showed.. I cared for him and will miss him.
