“ I was caught off guard upon hearing of Gwen's health problems, which she had not shared with me, and am so saddened at her death. Gwen and I became friends during our college years at St. Cloud State and kept in touch through the decades despite our separation by distance. Loved to hear my Gwennie laugh and was always keeping my ears open for a new joke to share with her! And I loved finding some silly Tinkerbell treat to send her as she always seemed so delighted with whatever it was. Just thinking of her brings a smile to my face and warmth to my heart. I was so blessed to have Gwen in my life. Thanks for the memories, Girlfriend!! See you on the Other Side! Gail Oyster

“ I so enjoyed my chats with Gwen when we worked together at the library. She spoke many times about how much she loved spending time with her mother and with her brother on holidays, and their times up at the cabin. She was funny, mischievous, strong-willed, and kind. I miss you, Gwen. Memory eternal. -Kara Middleton
