

Gwendolyn Marlene Frosig

March 28, 1932 - July 27, 2024

Gwen Frosig, 92, of Bloomington, MN, went Home to our Lord peacefully on July 27, 2024. With joy, she joined our Dad (Paul) and many loved family and friends who have gone Home before her. Gwen was born in Litchfield, MN to Harold and Elsie Nelson on March 28, 1932. There she grew up on the family farm. She earned her college degree at St. Cloud State Teachers College (now SCSU). She once told her daughter, all I really wanted to do was be a wife and mother and had hoped to meet her husband while attending college. She didn't find her soulmate there, but did later when she met Paul. Gwen and Paul married on June 29, 1957. Together they had 4 children, Christie (Rick), Greg (Rondi), Ken (Meg), Julie (David); 10 grandchildren, Sarah, Jacob (Lauren), Emma (Brandon), Rebecca (Jason), John (Jena), Austin (Jessa), Trevor (Nick), Tony (Ellie), Zachary, Jake; and 3 great-grandchildren, Mercy, Levi, and Henry. Gwen and Paul were married nearly 65 years when Paul went Home to heaven. Their family was so loved by them! One of Gwen's favorite things was singing in the church choir. Gwen's joy was the Lord, her family, and her friends.

A celebration of her life will be held at Transfiguration Lutheran Church, 11000 France Ave S, Bloomington Minnesota on Sunday, September 1st. Visitation will be from 1:00-2:00 p.m., followed by the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials will be sent or can be given online to one of these charities that were important to Gwen:

“ I have fond memories of working with Gwen as a Pera in the "Special Ed" division at Southwood Elementary School, Bloomington, MN.
On occasion, Gwen and I saw a need and would shop garage sales for useable, very nice clothing to fill some of the young children's needs.

“ Once when we were visiting Minneapolis, we spent the night with Paul and Gwen. It had been a busy day with family, and special to have time with them at the end of the day.
Long after we had gone to their room prepared for us, we could still hear Gwennie in the kitchen. "What do you suppose she is still doing? Do you think I should go help her?" I asked KV.
"No", he said "She is just busy making things perfect for tomorrow morning. Probably washing the bananas."
I started to laugh. Never heard of someone washing bananas before.

But now I know Gwennie was right to wash the bananas. Whatever sticks to them before arriving at the market, and whatever sticks to the at the market, comes home to the kitchen counter. I put mine in one of those plastic bags on the roll in the market for traveling home.

So, Gwennie I always think of you when getting bananas and the lesson you taught me. Thank you for keeping us safe.

Our times together were special, and the memories made were precious.

Thank you.
