“ As a friend of Susan since high school, I remember Mrs. Ivancie with great fondness. She was a kind Christian woman full of hospitality, a warm greeting, interested in what was happening in our lives, and a smile on her face. She was very dedicated to her girls and her family. My sympathy and prayers are with the Ivancie family.

“ I was fortunate to have met Gwen and have a wonderful holiday dinner with her and Susan a few years ago. Her story is so amazing and she was a woman who was ahead of her times. She had a beautiful, gentle, and faith-filled spirit that I see so much in my friend Susan. While I know she is missed here on earth, I am happy that she is at peace and is now with our Heavenly Father and her husband, family, and friends who are there celebrating and loving her!

“ Susan and Gwen had such a loving relationship; they enjoyed spending time together - watching sports, singing together, sharing their faith or simply just holding on to one another. It was a beautiful thing to see first hand how much they respected and loved each other.

“ Dear Susan,
Your mother was a blessing! When I first met her I was struck by the twinkle in her eyes and the sweet smile she gave everyone. She took her calling as a mother seriously and it was so obvious the love and bond she shared with you. I loved talking with her about Grand Rapids and sharing memories. She loved the Lord and exemplified His character. Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Love you and praying for you, Susan. Peggy

“ I am so sorry for your loss of Gwen. Heaven's gain -- but it is hard for those left behind who will miss her terribly.
The last time I saw Gwen was January 2020. Her daughter, Susan, and I took her to see "Little Women" at the Heights Theater. It was such a fun time! We laughed, ate popcorn, and discussed her approaching 100th birthday which she celebrated this past summer. It was such a fun evening.
I always admired the adoration that Gwen and Susan had for each other as mother-daughter. I know she will be sorely missed -- but her passing this earthly life isn't the "end of the story". It is a temporary separation for those who place their faith in Jesus and we will see her again.
Praying for you, Susan and Jane.

“ I am so blessed to have Gwen as my mother-in-law. She was so gracious with her time, kind words and listening to me when I needed someone to talk to. The first time I met her I shared with her my brother passing and she grabbed my arm and just gently said anytime you want to talk about Brian you call me. Right then I knew how special she was. I will miss picking her up for a Sunday visit and the great talks we had on the way. I am so happy for her that she is now in heaven with God and reunited with her husband Johnny. I love you Gwen.

“ We were happily introduced to this unique lady through our special neighbor and her daughter, Susan. From the the beginning Gwen's warmth and kindness was obvious. So, most importantly, was her Faith and confidence in Christ's promises. Jim had the added opportunity and privilege of seeing Gwen frequently at Presbyterian Homes/Johanna Shores where she was a resident and he a volunteer. Even as her sight and hearing faded, her welcoming spirit remained. With a twinkle in her eyes, she always was quick to also remind everyone she was ready to be reunited with her husband John. "He's wondering what is taking me so long!" Now they are united eternally in Jesus' welcoming arms.

“ I have such fond Minnesota childhood memories of Aunt Gwen, Uncle John, Jane and Susan. It was so long ago, yet I remember Aunt Gwen's sweet nature so well...and the yummy gumdrop bread she and her mother made for us (I thought that was so cool!). By all the accounts I've read here, she indeed was as special as I remembered her. May perpetual light shine upon her as she enjoys Paradise with our Lord and Savior. With peace and love, cousin Mary

“ We were introduced to this most delightful faith-filled lady by our neighbor and her daughter Susan eight years ago. She kindly welcomed us into her life. Jim had the pleasure and honor of seeing her weekly for several years at Presbyterian Homes' Johanna Shores residence. Even as her sight and hearing failed her, she always had a welcoming smile and a twinkle in her eyes ! And always ready to join her beloved husband John. They are now eternally together enveloped in Christ's love.

“ Dearest Susan, I never had the pleasure of meeting your sweet mama, but you spoke of her often and with such love and respect I feel as though I knew her. What a long and fruitful life she had! I know she will be greatly missed by you and your family, but my prayer for you is that you always remember her with a smile and all of the joy she brought to you. And don't forget the laughter! I love you my sister in Christ and pray for the peace that surpasses all understanding in our Lord Jesus Christ. Love, Bev

“ We rejoice in Gwen's passing into her eternal reward (rejoice with those who rejoice), but are so sorry for the grief her loss causes our good friends Jane and David (and weep with those who weep). What a privilege to know her, a woman of God to the end. Her Thanksgiving this year will be better than ours! You are both in our prayers.

“ Dearest Jane & David,
We think of the testimony of your dear mother and are reminded of Psalms 61:2
" When My Heart Is Overwhelmed Lead Me To The Rock That Is Higher Than I".
A special prayer for you two that you may know God is by your side and tender love is with you every moment. You have hugs from our hearts to your hearts.

“ I'm so sorry that you have lost your mom Jane. I know few words can be genuinely helpful - but as Jesus told me about Liz... imagine your mom seeing Jesus Face to face
for the first time... and Jesus face as he see's your mom seeing Him for the first time. Just as happy as she will be.
