“MY DEAR FRIEND BEA I wept for my dear friend, Bea. I just talked with her last night (Sunday, July 29th). I knew she had a terminal illness, yet, I was shocked to hear of her death. It was hard to believe that she was gone. We were friends for almost 20 years. There are just a few close friends you can trust in your life and Bea was one of them. In life, we need a few close friends to share our thoughts and dreams, the good times and the bad times. Bea loved her good friends and they loved her. Bea was a loving mother, loyal wife, wonderful friend, and was a caring person. Bea loved the Lord and attended church regularly. Life was not a bouquet of roses for Bea –there were many thorns in her bouquet. Rest in peace, Dear Bea, with the Lord and I pray you are surrounded by Angels, because you are one, yourself. My love to you, dear Bea, O Theos na tin anpifse (God rest her soul) Zoi se mas (Life to us) Georgia Christensen Las Cruces, New Mexico

“ ...SHE WILL WAIT! I will see you soon. We will all....hug....kiss....laugh....and cry. Your Momma is still here....just close your eyes and try. Our world is too rushed.....so confused.....so hurried. Her's is now filled with joy.....but for you she is worried. She wants you and her sons to be so strong, To carry on her lifes song. She hears your greif that's for sure. But to celebrate would help and cure. Mommas are like that....they care so much! She will wait for your arrival and touch. Past the moon....beyond the stars.... She will wait.....she will wait. Love, Bobby August 2012
