“ The Malinosky family was a large part of our family's life. They were wonderful neighbors when we lived in Minneapolis over 60 years ago and remained good friends for many years. So many happy memories of spending time at their cabin on Cross Lake. We always looked forward to Harold's blueberry pancakes during our visits, along with a lot of water sports. Loved that big inner tube. The only downside was Harold's idea of using firecrackers as an alarm clock which he would set off under our trailer at an ungodly hour. The whole family was full of fun and always a joy to be around. Our sincere condolences to the Malinosky family from the Cummings family.
