“ When I was little, I remember going with my Grandma Galloway to visit with Aunt Harriet -- I was ALWAYS eager to show off my (non-existent)piano playing skills for them! Aunt Harriet always had a way of making me feel so welcome and special. As a teenager, there were many things she sent for me that had belonged to her girls that she thought I might like or be able to use -- she was always so good to me. I think of her up in heaven with her sisters and brother, having a wonderful time, still it is hard to be without them down here too. You are all in my thoughts-- much love,

“ Hi Thuresons How much energy did Harriet have? She had six kids yet still found time to come to my baseball games in the mid 70's. Will never forget your Mom's outgoing, fun loving and positive spirit. Love Cousin Kevin (Lisa, Kate, Jenny & James) F.Y.I. Little James Russeth born on December 7'th, 2006 was going to be named Harriet if he was a girl.

“ Grandma Harriet had so many wonderful qualities. She was caring and giving. She was intelligent and chose her words carefully. Harriet was compassionate and forgiving. She was a wonderful cook. She had a great sense of humor. She was sensitive and always had words of encouragement. Grandma and I used to have late night chats back at the house on Nevada, and I learned a lot from her on these occasions. There are so many things I love about Grandma Harriet. She gave me my first piano lesson on the old black piano. I miss her, as we all do, but I know that she is at peace and would not want us to be sad. I love you Grandma.

“ "When the going gets tough, the tough get going!" "Forgive and forget" "Judge not lest ye be judged" Just a couple of things Harriet used to say to me. My Mom was a pistol; she was feisty, funny, and strong. I will carry her spirit with me forever! Love, Jean (her Italian daughter)

“ Dear Pat: My thoughts and prayers are with you, your Dad, and all of the family. My memory of your Mom goes back 40 years and to how kind she was to my Mom when my Dad died. She was a very busy Mom at that time, with all of you kids, but she found time to sit with my Mom and visit many afternoons. That was the kind of person she was - so thoughtful and caring. May God Bless you and your whole family with the strength to get through the hard times and remember all the good times. Love, Sherrie (Campbell) Fischer

“ Dearest Jean, Warren and the entire Thureson family, I feel that I have been on this journey with you the last few years! Being so close to Jean and talking with her about Harriet's decline the last few years has been so hard. She had the most devoted family and I'm sure that she did have a hard time "leaving the party." I always enjoyed my visits with Harriet. She always had that sparkle in her eyes when I would see her. Yes, her legacy of love and fond memories that she leaves in all of you is the best gift of all! In deepest sympathy and in celebration of a remarkable woman! God bless you during this difficult time! Love, Gayle Carlson

“ We miss you Grandma deeply. Your macaroni and cheese cannot be replaced. I remember visiting as a young lad performing chores and being rewarded with a great supper. Thank you for buying me soccer shin pads when I was young even though you said you did not have a lot of money but you knew that they were important to me and watched my face light up when I tried them on. Thank you for always making Cindy feel like she was part of our family.. The THURESON family has truly lost its MATRIARCH.. WE love you GRANDMA.
