

Harry E. Johnson

January 13, 2013

Johnson, Harry E. Born in Minneapolis on March 6, 1918, passed away peacefully at age 94 on January 13, 2013. After he graduated from Central High School in Minneapolis, he joined the Navy and served on the USS Witter DE 636 Destroyer Ship during WWII. After the war he started working for Franklin Creamery, shuttling milk bottles up and down apartment building stairs. His success with building up that route enabled him to purchase Midwest Vending, which he owned and operated. He was an avid Vikings fan and also enjoyed watching the Twins. Harry married Phyllis Johnson and they had six children. Harry spent the last years of his life with a special companion, June Anderson. He was preceded in death by parents, Gustaf & Lydia Johnson; sisters, Mable and Lorraine; brother, Wallace; wife, Phyllis of 51 years; infant daughter, Karen; sons, Brian, Brent and Bruce. Survived by son, Randy; daughter, Virginia (Gregg) Wickland; grandchildren, Benjamin and Samantha Wickland and many other loved ones. Visitation on Friday, Jan. 18 at Washburn-McReavy Bloomington Chapel, 2300 W. Old Shakopee Road, from 5 to 8 PM. Funeral service at House of Prayer Lutheran Church, 7625 Chicago Ave S., Richfield on Saturday, Jan. 19 at 11 AM. One hour visitation prior to service. Interment Pleasant View Memorial Gardens.
