

Hatsuo Souvannavong Lander

August 5, 1996 - April 23, 2023

"With the deepest hurt and a great loss of ours, we have lost our only loving son, Hatsuo Souvannavong Lander.

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away- his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets- this earth is only one... Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost- and he was loved so much."

“ Hi buddy.

I miss you everyday and was remembering the fun times we had together in Duluth. I know I'm off by a few days but I wanted to wish you a happy birthday. Rest easy brother.

“ As a mother, so proud of everything that he's done and have planned out his goals and have accomplished everything he's set his mind to it... This one of the many special moments was seeing him do a full performance of Megadeath "Holy Wars..." - Hatsuo age 16 (July 2nd, 2013) at Lakeside, CA (...Me and everyone else sees a GREAT performer, but the expression on him, he's the worst critic on himself...). 🎸🎵🎶🎸😎🎸

This took place in Lombard Street (famous steep snake road looking down the city to the ocean view) while visiting Gramma Ket for Christmas in California. He was the main camera man and I was the driver (and part camera woman - upside down video caption - user error 🤔).

“Hatsuo was the sweetest, kindest person we’ve ever known. He had such a gentle soul, we never heard him talk poorly of anyone. It was joyful to listen to him talk about music, and watch him play guitar. We’re thankful for the time we had with him, and all of the fun experiences like trying new restaurants, travelling to Japan, spending the holidays together, or just spending time with him hanging out and talking. We love Hatsuo very much, and it was wonderful to see how many other people his life touched and who also loved him. Hatsuo will be missed greatly, but will always be in our hearts and memories. Love, Auntie Sally and Uncle “Bread” Brad.”

“ I will ALWAYS remember you "Hatman", you have touched MANY HEARTS on your short stay here. Your Mom, one of my great friends who had touched my heart from the moment I met her & see she passed that down to you for others, we will all always hold you close. I had the blessing to meet you and I had always wanted to come and hear you play your music, as I'm sure that was just as memorable. Rest In Peace Hatsuo. Louie Goodnough

“ August 5th 1996 is the happiest day since I gave birth to my son whom I love dearly and made my life a purpose 26 years ago. He's now join his family who have greeted him at the gates of heaven. I will miss your warm love, presence, humor, sound of your laugh, and best conversations we've had; but I also know your Gramma Ket Souvannavong also misses you and surely is happy to finally see you again and be with her in spirit with you two watching over our family. Bless you my baby, forever living in my heart until we meet again when Mommy's time comes. I love you always my angel!! 🙏🎵🎸🎤
