

Helen Quinn

October 23, 2007

Quinn, Helen Pohlad Stotesbery Died at peace on Saturday October 20, 2007. Helen was born on October 3, 1911 in Oskaloosa, Iowa, to Michael and Mary Pohlad. Daughter of a railroad man she grew up in West Des Moines before moving to the Twin Cities with her husband Russell L. Stotesbery in 1950. Russell passed away in 1955 and she married Rupert M. Quinn in 1966 who passed away in 1973. Helen was an unassuming person who made friends easily with her simple but elegant style. She was always cheery and quick to crack a smile in the hopes of cheering up those around her. She enjoyed the opera, cooking, golfing and gin rummy. She was on the board of directors of several Marquette Banks and its parent Bank Shares Incorporated for almost 30 years and was very actively involved in various community organizations. She supported the Twin Cities Opera Guild and the Minnesota Symphony, among others. She leaves behind brother, Carl Pohlad; and sister, Jeanne White; her son, Patrick Stotesbery and his wife, Anne; grandchildren, Nicole Duncan, Dan Stotesbery, Laura Stotesbery and Carolyn Stotesbery; two great-grandchildren, Lander and Cheyenne Duncan; plus step-daughter Kathy Quinn Johnston.
