

Helen (McMeen) Smith

August 30, 2015

Smith, Helen McMeen lived an energetic life as an educator and traveler. As an educator in the Mpls public schools, Helen touched the lives of many students at Patrick Henry HS and Southwest HS. Helen's lifelong passion of music fostered her love of traveling to attend concerts throughout the US and Europe. Helen actively participated in the Shubert Club plus various organizations in the music community. Helen attended the McPhail Center for Music, graduated from St. Olaf College, and earned a M.ED from Macalester College. Family was the center stone of Helen's life. She maintained ties to her family in Gregory and Burke, SD. Helen was preceded in death by her husband, Richard O. Smith and her parents. She is survived by her two brothers Jim (Linda) and Lewis (Barb). Helen was adored by her nieces and nephew. She will be missed by a host of friends including her college roommate and lifelong friend Ruth A. Carlson. Helen Smith went to be with her Lord at age 85. A memorial service for Helen will be held on Saturday, September 5 at Normandale Lutheran Church in Edina. Visitation is from 10:00 to 11:00 A.M with the memorial service following at 11:00 A.M. Memorials suggested to Normandale Lutheran Church, the Shubert Club and the McPhail Center for Music. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
