“ She was a wonderful person to get to know over the year. My team and my self were blessed to have Helen and her family at the Lighthouse. Thank you Helen for all of the laughs and great memories of all the fun he had. Thank you for your personality and love. Thank you to the family for sharing her with us over these years. She change our worlds for the better and we are blessed to have had both of your parents live with us. Our days have not been the same without them but we smile thinking of them daily. Please come back and visit soon
