

Helen Lamann Steininger Stults

March 31, 1925 - March 30, 2015

Age 89 of Roseville Died March 30, 2015 Helen Stults was born on March 31, 1925 in Brooklyn, NY. She lived in the area until she was 16, when her father, Rev. George Steininger, passed away. She moved with her mother, Della Baker Steininger, and brother, George to the family home in Grand Haven, MI where she met her high school sweetheart, Roy E. Stults. Helen and Roy married in 1946 and graduated as teachers from Central College in Pella, IA. Helen taught elementary and special education in Michigan, Iowa and Minnesota, finishing her career in the Roseville school system. She was an active member of North Como Presbyterian Church for 55 years and a member of PEO Chapter DM. She was an avid bridge player, enjoyed golf and took great joy from her family and friends. She is survived by daughters, Barbara Rowe (Ric) and Kathy Stults, grandsons, Kevin and Chris Rowe, and great-granddaughter, Payton Rowe. Funeral service 11AM Monday, April 6 (visitation begins at 10AM) at HOLCOMB-HENRY-BOOM-PURCELL, 515 Hwy 96 W., Shoreview. Private interment Fort Snelling. Memorials preferred to the church or donor's choice.

Tribute Wall

“ You couldn't help but love Helen! She was in my PEO chapter and I always looked forward to hearing her calm, gentle voice. Her demeanor was so happy and compassionate to others. I will miss her dearly, but am pleased I have such good memories to hold dear. What a blessing she was to everyone!

Leslie Erickson - March 31, 2015 at 12:00 AM