My love and thoughts and prayers are with Helen's family. Many good memories of our dear neighbor at Lake Latoka. The time she shared Thanksgiving dinner at our home with our very young grandchildren. They called her "Grandma Helen" and knew that she lived in the blue house. Every year at Christmas she presented George with a beautiful plate of Krumkake, which he appreciated so much. A strong and independent lady who never missed church, was so kind, and lots of fun. She is missed by her former neighborhood.
