“ My family sends its condolences. As I think of all of the times we, as cousins got together when we were little, I smile thinking about Aunt Helen. Anunt Helen was the best cook, mom (Mayme) even said it. I remember that every year near the holidays we would come and stay. Aunt Helen would make home made cookies and store boxes of them in the basement along with great breads. She was special and will be remembered. With Love, Terry

“ Sorry for I can not be there in this time of sadness, that is for duty calls. I wish to leave you with this to reflect upon.

A Better Place

*She's in a better place right now
Than she's ever been before;
All pain is gone; she's now at rest;
Nothing troubles her anymore.*

*It's we who feel the burden of
Our sadness and our grief;.
We have to cry, to mourn our loss,
Before we get relief.*

*We know we'll reconnect with her
At the end of each life's road;
We'll see her cherished face again
When we release our earthly load.*
