

Henry Peter Terhark

April 3, 1929 - April 5, 2025

Henry was born April 3, 1929, in Iowa to Ben and Sarah Terhark, the youngest of six children. He attended a one room school for 6 years and graduated from Ruthton MN high school in 1948.

He worked on the family farm until called to serve in the US Army during the Korean War. Following that service, Henry worked at the Ford Plant in Minneapolis, MN, the Chicago Northwestern Railroad in Milwaukee, WI, and Eddy's Bread, Minneapolis, MN.

In 1967, Henry took a job with Schweigert Meats, where he spent 22 years self-employed as a sales representative.

Henry married Lavina (Esterly) May 27, 1955. They have two sons, Jeff (Sue) and John (Jan); five grandchildren: Matt (Katherine), Samantha (Jonathon), Jennifer, Kyle (Natalie), Jakob (Tess), and 6 great grandchildren: Madison, Liliana, Daniel, Kiera, Evelyn, Jackson and one on the way.

Henry and Lavina were members of Brooklyn Park Evangelical Free Church, MN, for 37 years, after which they worshipped at New Hope Church, New Hope, MN. While there, Henry joined the Gideons' North Hennepin Camp.

In retirement, Henry enjoyed golfing, fishing, woodcarving and working with his scroll saw. Some of his happiest times were spent with family and friends at their cabin on Lake Francis, South Haven, MN.
