“ So sorry to hear from Dee today and also talked to his niece Sandy, about Hilmans death. My Mom, LoElla was his first cousin. He kept in touch with me when I left MN to live in California! He kept me updated with family news and I appreciated him so much! When I also lived in Bloomington his family even came to see puppet shows in Edina which I performed! He has been a great support especially when family members passed away. I know his faith in God showed as he cared so much for family! Although I can not be present my love and thoughts are with you! I am so thankful for his caring words. Becky Brom/Carranza {my maiden name was Richter>
