

Howard Charles Sackrider

November 7, 2014

Sackrider, Howard Charles Died November 7, 2014 of natural causes at 99 years of age. A hard working, crafty, charming gentleman with a rich lifetime of experiences: farmer, warrior, engineer, pioneer, demolition expert, builder, loan and investment executive, international traveler, card player, grower of green beans, consumer of strawberries, husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend - he was quite the character. He taught by example: responsibility, self-reliance, honesty and generosity. Howard will live on in the stories and hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know him. We are grateful for the loving care Howard received from the staff at Heritage of Edina. Thank you Dad, we are fortunate to have you in our lives. With fond remembrances, your family: Marda, Bill (Colleen), Gary (Mary), Joey (Cal), Karen (Craig); grandchildren: Alex (Dana), Clair, Amber (Ben), Erin, Molly and great-grandchildren: Noah, Zella and Charlie.
