

Hy Joseph Adlin, Jr.

February 25, 1931 - May 7, 2020

dlin, Hyman "Hy" Jr. Age 89 of Bloomington, MN passed away on May 7, 2020 of natural causes; as he imagined, peacefully asleep in his home of 58 years. Born to Katherine and Hyman Adlin Sr. on February 25, 1931, Hy was raised by his grandmother, Antonia Kwaterna in North Minneapolis. Preceded in death by his loving wife Barbara of 53 years and courageous son Brooks. Survived by daughters, Gail Carlson (Bruce), Susan Greenwald (Donald) and Christina Kringstein (Barry), son, David (Floencia); grandchildren, Brandon, Jenna (Braydon), Courtney (Eli), Paige (Jason), James, Alan, Cole, Tess, Grace, Andrew; and great-grandchildren, Kip and Lucy, brother-in-law, Glenn Kennedy and niece Carla.

Hy attended primary school at the Basilica of St. Mary and graduated from St. Thomas Military Academy High School in 1950. He was a proud member of the Cadets' undefeated 1949 State Catholic Championship basketball team. Hy loved sports and was a long time Bloomington youth sports supporter, including a term as the President of the BAA. He was always a generous man and often supplied uniforms and equipment for those in need. Hy owned and operated State Street Liquor Store in Minneapolis for many years. Later in life, a highlight for Jay (as known by many) was supporting his son Brooks with his ticket brokerage business. Hy was a social and affectionate man who easily made friends and loved conversation.

Hy loved spending annual vacations at Maddens Resort where he was surrounded by family and friends spanning 6 decades. He was a true gentleman; to know Hy was to love Hy. He was a lucky man and all who knew him were lucky as well. The Adlin family was blessed to have Holly Bryant as a special friend and caregiver to Hy for many years.

Private graveside family burial will be at Dawn Valley Cemetery with a celebration of Hy's life to held at a future date. Memorials are welcome to the Minnesota Landscape Arboretum, 3675 Arboretum Drive, Chaska MN 55318 or to St. Thomas Academy, 949 Mendota Heights Road, Mendota Heights, MN 55120.
