“ Ian will be sadly missed here at Tri-County Center. He was known for being such a good man whose calming demeanor made a huge impact in the lives of our service recipients he so proudly served. Now as Ian leaves his legacy within our agency, it was an honor to have worked alongside him....and I am truly grateful to have called him my friend.

“ I will miss the conversations between us about some of his life and my life and the many things he told me to look up on different sights about preachers and health related items. You are now walking with Jesus. I will be praying for the family.
