“ I remember a warm, enjoyable and content presence whenever Inez came to church. She and her husband were a quiet presence at CRUMC. She leaves a devoted and loving family that knew unconditional love. God bless the family and all she leaves behind.

“ I will miss Inez so very much. She was always so polite and friendly every time we visited. I remember 1 time when I went over to visit, she had some lunch ready when I got there. She was a special and dear friend. Debbie

“ I have a soft spot in my heart for Inez. Growing up across the street, Inez was a constant presence in our family. Now as an adult, I always looked forward to our visits on the porch, which were such a treasure. Inez was kind and loving, always affirming. I will miss her on our travels back to Coon Rapids. Sending you all much love, prayers, and condolences.
