

Irene Swanson

July 27, 2003

Swanson Irene Swanson, age 95 of Bloomington, died peacefully at the MN Masonic Home under the loving care of the staff. She is survived by her son, Al (Betty) of Sacramento, CA; and daughter, Judy Teeters of Bloomington; 8 grandchildren and 8 great- grandchildren. Her greatest pleasures in life were her family, playing cards of any kind, baking buns and frying doughnuts. Her life went from being raised on the North Dakota prairie, to Mpls, to Granite Falls, MN, where her family operated a department store, to California and the variety store business and back to Bloomington for bridge, 500, cribbage, black jack, and dominoes. A celebration of Irene's life will be held at the MN Masonic Home Chapel, 11501 Masonic Home Dr., Bloomington, on Monday, July 28th, at 2 PM. Memorials preferred to Sacramento Scottish Rite Clinic for Childhood Language Disorders, 6151 H Street at Carlson Dr., Sacramento, CA 95819, or MN Masonic Home, 11501 Masonic Home Dr., Bloomington, MN 55437.
