

Iris Mae Baran

April 15, 1925 - December 2, 2024

Baran, Iris Mae (Kunshier) 99, of Northeast Minneapolis and St. Anthony Village, died peacefully Monday morning, December 2, 2024. Iris was preceded in death by husband Theodore "Ted" John Baran, and parents Edward Frank Kunshier and Margaret (nee Pedersen) Kunshier. Iris was born April 15, 1925 at family farm west of Forest Lake, Minn. Iris is survived by son Gary (& Diane) Baran, daughter Diane Hubers, granddaughters Debbie Baran, Vicki Hubers, and Stacey (& Nick) Svenddal, and Michael Fiedler, and great-grandchildren Tanner Patruska, Waylon Svenddal, and Scarlett Svenddal. Iris was a loving wife, mother, and grandma, and will be missed, by her family and many friends. While Ted ran the family service station in Northeast Minneapolis, Iris was bookkeeper, homemaker, and housewife. Iris enjoyed music, travel, genealogy, friends, and dancing in later life. In lieu of flowers, a donation to American Diabetes Assn or other charity is preferred.

“ I was sorry to hear of your loss of precious Iris. I met her a few times and have heard your wonderful stories of her. My most favorite memory was helping to create a Shutterfly book for her 90th birthday. By the time I got done helping with that, I felt like I knew her quite well and it was an honor to help. May God be with you and may your memories help you in your grieving.
