“ Dear Irma, I love our memory when you came to Washington D.C. to help your wonderful daughter when she had some acute medical needs. You and I got our supplies and then proceeded to "wash" Kathy's hair and get her ready for healing. I also remember you helping Kathy relocate to Washington D.C. You brought me the greatest gift I could ever have wished for. I cherish the memories knowing the love you and your daughter had. May you rest in Peace in Heaven. God bless your family. They were blessed to have you.
