“ Isaiah is my brother! I loved him so so much! He was my family and I love them more than anything in the world! He lived a good life even though it was cut short by so many years! He's Heaven now and looking down over all of us, keeping us safe and helping us all through lives challenges! His death was the hardest thing that I ever went through in my life, but God has a reason for everything and I have to trust him in the time that I have in my life moving forward! Isaiah and I bonded over so many things, but the biggest thing was basketball! He loves Lebron so much and in 2020 we even made a bet about what NBA team was going to win the championship. Obviously, he said the lakers, and I said Boston. To this day and probably forever Isaiah will ALWAYS love Lebron! That's all he would ever talk about every time we would talk on the phone! This year Isaiah and I were supposed to go to the NBA summer league in Las Vegas, Nevada when we moved back to New Mexico! We have been talking about this since last August. He was so excited! Definitely way more excited than me and that's saying a lot! I miss him so much and I have to believe in the Lord that he will help me and my family get through this hard time!

I love you so so so much Zaya! thank you for being the best brother I could ever ask for while you were here on Earth! You are now my Guardian Angel and I'll see you soon!

“ Bob & Vicki, our hearts are heavy to hear of Isaiah's passing. We have such great memories of Crystal Little League days when our boys were young. They had lots of fun together. A couple favorite photos. Blessed be Isaiah's memory, he will be missed. Our thoughts & prayers are with you & your family. God's peace be with you. Jerry & Jeri Munsterman family.

“ Dear Vicki - when I saw the tragic news of your son's death on our Wabash High School mailing list, I immediately felt like I had to reach out to you. While it's been many years, my heart is always close to friends from the old neighborhood and so I'm sad that you and your family have to go through this. The death of a child is something that none of us want. I've never been through it, so I have no idea of the pain you must be feeling. Just wanted you to know that your old classmates do care and we hope you are able to get to a place where you accept what has happened and remember the wonderful times you had with Isaiah. I'm sure there were many. Take care and peace be with you.
