“ Jack was a great man and a good friend of mine. We shared many things in common including our passion for fishing and the outdoors. My fondest memory of Jack was a time when Jack, myself, and my dog Jade went out fishing on the Flambeau flowage and caught quite a few walleyes while watching the morning fog drift off the water. We could not figure out who was more excited about it because each time we pulled a walleye in, Jade would jump to the side of the boat wagging her tail awaiting that walleye to break the water. Family always came first for Jack and he was one of the most selfless persons I have ever had the pleasure to be acquainted with. He would literally give you the shirt off his back if you needed it. My deepest condolences go out all family members and friends of this great man. He would want a celebration of his memories less than tears on this day, a beer or two I will crack in his memory.
