“ There are way to many words to say, I have no clue where to begin. For a time, I knew Jake like the back of my hand. We went our separate ways, but always had a place in each other's hearts. I won't be able to make it to the memorial, but in celebration of Jake, I will be donating a tree to his family. The tree is to be placed at their hunting land, where Jake always loved to be. It will bloom in or around May as a sweet reminder of him. Coincidentally, the tree decided to open it's flowers today just for Jake.

Rest in peace Jake, you will definitely be missed and never forgotten.

“ Hi.. I'm Aaron Ward. I didn't know him too long. I worked with him at Hansen and Company. Every time I seen him... he always seemed happy. I have caught myself recently thinking about him. I almost hit him up in Facebook messenger to say hey. But then remembered. I want to send my condolences to the family! I feel bad. Man oh man... RIP Jake the Snake 😞😭

“ Over the past few months I've found myself looking over the many memories with Jake and realizing just how many adventures we took together. The man sure knew how to explore with confidence and humor... even when we'd get lost! He kept spirits high and the fire burning. We got together for so many celebrations... Graduations, birthdays, births, weddings, and the favorite- "just because!"

“ Words can not describe the emptiness I feel inside. Jake has been one of my best friends for over 20 years. He stood in my wedding as my best man back in 2020. Being an only child Jake was the closest thing I have to a brother. I'm gonna miss the hell out of you buddy!

“ I remember when I first came home to the Canny family, I was 15-16 years old and not officially adopted yet. I think it was thanksgiving, and Aunt Beth was hosting. I was so nervous, but Jake was so kind to me and made sure I felt welcome. I'll never forget him taking the time to make sure I felt as comfortable as possible. He will always be loved and greatly missed.

“ This picture of Jake LaDue and my son Dylan Balaski was taken up north in Pillager, Minnesota at one of many of their hunting adventures. Jake was like a son to me. I've known him for over 20 years and what a blessing it has been. His smile and laugh were both contagious. He was always willing to help others before himself. He will be forever missed. Rest in heavenly peace Jake. Love you always, mama Becky.
