

Jacqueline Marie Hartnett

January 8, 1943 - August 15, 2025

Hartnett, Jacqueline Marie (Fiori)

Age 82 of Bloomington, passed away on August 15, 2025. Jackie graduated from Hibbing High School in 1961 and attended the College of St. Catherine, earning a Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing in 1965. In 1974, Jackie completed her Master of Science in Nursing at the University of Minnesota. Jackie served most of her career at the V.A. Medical Center in Minneapolis and was the Director of Nursing at Midway hospital for several years. Toward the last chapter of her career at the V.A. Hospital, she pioneered a new clinical specialty in Enterostomal Therapy (CETN).

While nursing was her profession, she also excelled in countless hobbies and passions throughout her life. In addition to being a tremendous and innovative cook, often hosting wonderful holiday gatherings, Jackie loved collecting and selling antiques, was an avid flower gardener, and interior decorator. She embraced all her many hobbies and interests with tremendous passion, excelled at each, and enjoyed sharing them with family and friends.

Jackie will be deeply missed by her husband, E. Jon Hartnett; son, Joseph C. Wagner; brother, Quentin Fiori Jr.; sisters, Phyliss Haugen and Olivia Staines; half-sister, Marguerite Stearns; brother-in-law, Dr. Daniel (M.C.) Hartnett; and stepdaughters, Anna (Daniel Nedoroski) Hartnett and Susan Hartnett.

Preceded in death by parents, Carmela (Conti) and Quentin Fiori Sr.; half-sister, Carmela (Greco) Lederer; first-husband, Charles J. Wagner; and stepson, Patrick J. Hartnett.

A celebration of life will be held on Wednesday, August 27 at Washburn-McReavy Bloomington Chapel (2300 W. Old Shakopee Rd.) with a visitation at 1pm and service at 2pm. Private family interment.

“ *Hot fudge sundae !!! Wonderful service! The Eulogy and music was so Jackie!!
My mother, started as a work friend, then Antiques, Auctions and Vegas. Freemont Street experience was a run out of the casino to watch and sway to the music!
I know your dancing to the music!*
