

Jacqueline Mullaney

October 4, 2013

Mullaney, Jacqueline age 66, of New Brighton. Devoted mother and loving wife. While surrounded by her husband and children, and after a 3 1/2 year battle with cancer, Jackie won her final peace on October 4, 2013. Her grace, courage and strength through this process was an inspiration to all who knew her. Preceded in death by father, Clayton Johnson. Survived by husband, Edward; mother, Jeanette; son, Ryan (Katie); daughter, Alison (Jason) Henderson; granddaughter, Layla Henderson; twin brother, Jerry (Sherry); younger brother, Jay (Ardis); and many beloved nieces & nephews. Celebration of Jackie's life will be Saturday, Oct. 12 at 3:00 PM, with a gathering of family & friends one hour before at Christ the King Lutheran Church, 1900 7th St. NW, New Brighton. Private interment Ft. Snelling National Cemetery. Memorials preferred to the church. In honor of Jackie, please wear a "pop" of color. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Hillside Chapel 612-781-1999

Tribute Wall

JJ

“ As her twin brother I greatly miss her and will cherish the memories of her forever,.

Jerry Johnson - October 08, 2013 at 07:47 AM

KB

“ Jackie was a great mother and parent, and will be missed by all. As neighbors, while our children were in elementary school, we often talked and shared child-rearing experiences with Jackie and Ed. We are so sorry for your loss, and wish the very best to the family. Ken Brumbaugh

Ken Brumbaugh - October 07, 2013 at 06:11 AM