

Jackie Radde

February 27, 1931 - March 7, 2022

Jacqueline "Jackie" Radde, born on Feb. 27th, 1931 passed away peacefully on March 7th, 2022 eight days after her 91st birthday. Jackie was loved by everyone that knew her. Her warm smile, generosity, sense of humor, and loving nature, gave her the ability to impact the many lives she touched. Jackie adored Dachshunds and was around them for most of her life. Her apartment is adorned with Dachshund cards, figurines, pictures, pillows, and stuffed animals.

The Minnesota Twins were Jackie's favorite team and her favorite players were Harmon Killebrew and Kirby Puckett.

Jackie was an accomplished bridge player, and played at every opportunity. Jackie was dearly loved by her family and friends. She had lifelong friends from each of the many neighborhoods where she lived over the years, along with college friends, high school friends, and many other acquaintances that she met along the way.

Jackie was deeply religious, attended church at Immaculate Heart of Mary regularly, and helped her church throughout the years.

Jackie touched many lives in her 91 years and will dearly be missed by many. Jackie is preceded in death by her loving husband Paul, parents William and Bernice, sister Gerry Sime, sister Marlene, brother-in-law Bill Sime, brother-in-law Bill Samson, and Grandson Trevor Radde. Survived by her children Bob (Kelly), Debbie (Roger), Sandy (Doug), and Bill; Grandchildren Justin (Angela), Jacob, Emily, Nick, and Katie; Great Grandchildren Thatcher, Gunner, and Bryston.

Funeral Services to be held at 11am on Friday March 18, 2022 at Immaculate Heart of Mary church at 13505 Excelsior Boulevard in Minnetonka, with visitation one hour prior.

Per Jackie's request, please make donations to Mybellis.org (formerly Adoption Option Council of Minnesota) or MoveFwd.org (formerly Teens Alone).
