

Jaeda Delaine Stubblefield

February 16, 1998 - January 17, 2026

Jaeda Delaine Stubblefield, 27, of Coon Rapids, Minnesota, passed away on January 17, 2026, exactly one year after the loss of her beloved father. Born in Minneapolis, Jaeda grew up with a bright, creative spirit and a deep love for animals that guided much of her life.

Jaeda worked at a local veterinary clinic, where her compassion and gentle humor made her a favorite among coworkers, clients, and the pets she cared for. She was pursuing her dream of becoming a veterinary technician when illness interrupted her path. Even through the most difficult moments, she remained committed to her goals and faced every challenge with remarkable resilience and courage.

In 2024, Jaeda received the gift of life through a double-lung transplant. She formed lasting bonds with the medical teams who cared for her, touching their lives with her gratitude, determination, and the spark that made her unmistakably herself.

Jaeda shared a special bond with her dog, Jasmine, who stayed faithfully by her side through every step of her journey and remained with her at the very end.

She is survived by her mother, Kat; her brothers, Calvin and Michael; and her sisters, Marquette, Chantae, Treonna, and Delaina. She was preceded in death by her father, Calvin.

She will be remembered for her humor, her creativity, her fierce love for animals, and the strength she showed in the face of adversity. Her absence leaves a profound ache in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Animal Humane Society: <https://www.animalhumanesociety.org/donate/make-gift>.
