“ I was searching for you, Nancy, on the internet and came upon this obituary of your father. My condolences go out to you and your family. I'm sorry to respond so late to his passing. My father died this year too. I have fond memories of your dad playing trombone at your wedding reception. What a great party it was! My best to you and all your family. Much love, Sue Tripett Smith (suetriplett@gmail.com)
