“ I was a former co-worker with Scott at WCCO Radio about 20 years ago. Our paths crossed again when I came back to the station a couple years ago and Scott was running his own marketing firm. We worked together on the St. Croix Casino account. Scott was an absolute pleasure to work with and I considered him more than a client, he was a friend. He will be dearly missed.

“ I remember hiring Scott Brokaw at 92 KQRS radio back in the late eighties. I met Scott through a friend that Pete Frisch and I shared in Minot, ND, radio station owner, Don Hoberg, who said of Scott, "I've tried to hire this local guy, but he's loyal to the radio station that gave him his start in Minot radio. I need you to get him to the Twin Cities. He's winning over too many of our advertisers!" Years earlier, Don also introduced Pete and I to Tom Barnard, so we interviewed Scott and immediately loved everything he was, both as a person, and radio account executive. On day one we literally handed Scott the Yellow Pages and from nothing, he built an impressive list of radio advertising clients, and an impressive life in the Twin Cities for he and his family. I saw in Scott, a man who lived life fully committed to his faith, family, friends, advertising career, and his community. We will all miss Scott's laugh, and his clever sense of humor that always made us smile back at him.

My condolences to Vicki and his entire family.

“ All our childhood memories are coming to the surface, and I will cherish them forever. Scott was one of my best cousins growing up and we hoped to reconnect this summer. He will always be in my heart. My deep and sincere condolences to you Vicki, Scottie, Ryan and Brett, and all his grandchildren and friends Scott leaves behind. This wasn't in his plans right now. I know he cherished each and every one of you. ❤️❤️❤️. Sending much love, Jean Lindvig

While I know he didn't want to leave you, I do know he is dancing in heaven with his mom and my dad, our grandparents and all who were awaiting his arrival.

Somehow I want to believe he's on a beach in South America but sadly I know I'm wrong.....

He could have been a lot of successful people but chose to be himself....which was great for all of us who knew him. I'll miss him.
