

James Hardy Christiansen

December 17, 1964 - May 24, 2024

Jim "James" Hardy Christiansen, 59, of Shakopee, Minnesota, passed away on May 24, 2024. He was born on December 17, 1964, in New Brighton, Minnesota.

Jim was a dedicated and driven family man, known for his craftsmanship and entrepreneurial spirit. He worked tirelessly, holding two jobs for many years creating a lasting legacy for his daughters.

In his career, Jim worked as a bouncer at Iron Horse and spent 25 years at Dri-Steem Humidifier Company part of REI. Additionally, he delivered the Star Tribune newspaper for 23 years.

Outside of work, Jim enjoyed fishing, bowling, boating, BBQing for friends and family, traveling, carpentry and landscaping. He was a true engineer who found joy in working with his hands and creating. He loved his daughters to the Moon and back, his pride and joy.

Jim will be deeply missed by his wife, Cynthia Christiansen, his daughters Alycia Christiansen and Amanda Henry, son-in-law James Henry, grandson David James Henry, and a large extended family.

He is preceded in death by his father Vernon Christiansen, mother Frankey Christiansen, brother Curtis Christiansen, and several other relatives.

A celebration of life for Jim will be held at Memorial Park - 1801 County Road 101, Shakopee, Minnesota on June 22nd 1-4 pm. In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Veterans organizations in his honor.

The Washburn-McReavy Albin Chapel in Eden Prairie, Minnesota, is assisting the family with arrangements.
