March 15, 2013

Cromie, James Page age 84 of St. Louis Park and Fort Myers, FL, James was preceded in death by his mother Grace Page and father James Mill Cromie. He was also preceded in death by his step grandson, Luke Bucklin and great-grandchildren, Nate, Nick and Noah Bucklin; sisters- in-law, Jane (George) Fearon, Mary (Eric) Lundsten, Madge (Wilbur) Wakefield and brothers-in-law, Bill (Kitty) Porter, Jack Porter, Leonard Porter, and Arthur Porter. He is survived by his wife, Maisie Cromie; his daughters, Jane (Larry Bucklin) Cromie, Linda (Byron) Sheppard and Marjorie Cromie; his grandchildren, John (Alison) Cromie, Grace Cromie, Lindel and Luke Sheppard; and his step grandchildren, Paul (Tristana) Bucklin, David Bucklin, and Ginger Bucklin; great-grandchildren, Sarah and Sami Bucklin, Oliver Ruddock, Massino Bucklin and Magnus Cromie; sisters-in-law, Ruth, Janice and Kay Porter. Jim served in the US Army in Europe just after WWII. When he returned he married Maisie and then attended Brooklyn Tech College where he received a degree in Chemical Engineering. Until they moved to Mpls in 1969, Jim and Maisie lived in Gerritsen Beach in New York, a part of Brooklyn, where both were born and raised. Jim was the church organist! He was a cultured and well educated man, but a very private person. He worked as a chemical engineer in New York and then later in Minnesota. He retired from Hennepin County having worked as a Facilities Manager. His love and friendship were precious gifts. Interment Lakewood Cemetery.
