“ Jim was 20 years older than his younger cousins but he always had time for us when the family got together. He always had time to throw a ball, tell a joke, share a story, or just sit and visit. If there was a family function at the farm, he would bring his family and spend the day. He had a wonderful sense of humor, a great smile, and liked to laugh. He will be missed.

Should you Google the definition of “kind” you’ll see Jim’s picture.
His charming smile always lit up the room.
