“ Jimmy was truly “one of a kind”. At the dealership he always had that can do attitude no matter what the situation was. He loved being around people and could tease with the best of them!!!! He also had those same character traits when he was playing golf. I am going to greatly miss him.

“ I got to know Jim during the last year of his life He was a runner at the dealership I started working for. Jim was very charismatic and funny.

Betty, I never got to meet you but he told me about how you prepared meals and wanted to rearrange the furniture and how he wasn't having that. He would tell us stories of his younger years and the trouble he got into. I would call him old man and he would chuckle and he answer WHAT???? He told me about his cat, and how he loved him and how he had the cat trained.

He is certainly missed around here. After he started treatments and was gone from here the place did not have the same energy anymore. The world seems a little dimmer today.

God speed Jimmy!
